DISCUSS IOWA AVE. PROPERTY: The superintendent informed the board that Kiowa County has expressed interest in obtaining school district property located on East Iowa Avenue, where a bus barn was located prior to the tornado. The county has plans to build a Commons/Media Center on that block and is in need of additional property for placement of geothermal wells. Monica Hayse has also expressed interest in the property, as it borders her property to the north. Action on the matter will be considered at the October 12 board of education meeting.

Bill Odle arrived at 8:20 p.m.

REPORTS: K-8 Principal Staci Derstein gave the board her official September enrollment figures, and reported that the schools have received a congratulatory letter from the Kansas State Department of Education for achieving "Adequate Yearly Progress" on assessment tests in spring 2009.

Dale Hayse arrived at 8:30 p.m.

REPORTS

High school Principal Randy Fulton reported on enrollment numbers and high school activity classifications, and gave an update on computer/server issues.

Superintendent Darin Headrick told the board he has been appointed to the School Finance Task Force. He also reported on the school construction project and the equipping the football concession stand.

J. Wynn Fleener left the meeting at 9:11 p.m.

CLASSIFIED
RESIGNATION:

Superintendent Headrick informed the board that he has received the resignation of Lynette Pauly, district office secretary/treasurer.
