

Maverick Spotlight

September/October 2015 Volume 1

Publications Mission Statement

Publications is committed to recording and documenting important events for KCJH by learning photography and 21st century journalism skills to draw attention to positive things happening at KCJH. *Publications also decided to document important events for KCHS.

What's up? by Tanner Newell

photo by Mrs. Wade

Senior candidates for homecoming 2015 take a minute to show confusion and silliness. Pictured are Kelsi Francis, Aubrey Vandenhoeck, Marissa Kendall, Aaron Heft, Dylan Jacks and Erik Torres.

Crowned: by Tanner Newell

photo by Tye Brack

It's homecoming and King Erik Torres gave a ring pop to Queen Aubrey Vandenhoeck.

Pepsters: by Cameron Erickson

photos by Kade Trummel and Cameron Erickson Pepsters performed with High School and Jr. High cheerleaders to the song "Cheerleader" by Omi

Learning in the shadows:

photo by Cameron Erickson.

Publications students shadowed high school photographers learning the in's and out's to sports photography.

Workshop bound: by Cameron Erickson,

photo by Mrs. Wade

Jr. High and High School student learned together at a Jostens workshop in Dodge City. Most important for the day was how to write captions, that captions should be short, and how to interview so you can use quotes in captions.

Spotlight staff:

Editor: Katie Spainhour

Co-editor: Cameron Erickson

Photographers and Writers:

Cameron Erickson, Ellery McMurry,
Tanner Newell, Katie Spainhour,
Kade Trummel, Bo West, Alexander Wolfley

Together we stop bullying: by Katie Spainhour

photo by Katie Spainhour

Seventh grader Allison Kirby shows initiative, signing the bullying poster. Eighth grader Sabrina Thomas shared, "you were born an original, so don't die a copy."

4-H Rally: by Ellery McMurry

Courtesy photo

It's a good day for teaching at Kiowa County because the 4-H groups are ready to tell all about 4-H. They are hoping to get young people into their group. They told all about the meetings and projects that they do like sewing, beef, swine and a lot more.

Football: by Bo West

photo by Tye Brack

Maverick's had a good game October 16th. "It was an easy game, we knew what we were up against when we played Kinsley" stated sophomore Corey Erickson.

Kiowa County Tennis at Kiowa KS: by Ellery McMurry,

Courtesy photo

McKelvie McMurry makes a strong return against Chapparrel doubles team. "I was really proud of McKelvie and doubles partner Christen Osborn. They showed they could really be competitive as a doubles team. They were so much fun to watch." states parent Kim McMurry.

Last game of the season: by Katie Spainhour,

photo by Corey Erickson

Jr. High girls won their last game of season 25-11 against South Grey. Coach Pore had this to say about the volleyball girls last game of the season, "That was the best game we've played all season!"

“Baseball”: photo by Cody Kibel

Eighth graders read a short story by Lionel Garcia called ‘Baseball’ then enjoyed a game using only items from the story.

JH Football: by Bo West

photo by Corey Erickson

Mavericks had to play six man the last game of the season. This was due to 5 players being injured though out the season. Coach Ploger stated “It was a very hard, fought game”.

League: Alex Wolfley and Tanner

Newell, photos by Mrs. Wade

Freshman, Kaden Ulrich, had this to say about his first League meet, “I think I did well”. This was his first year running Cross County. Nick Sears, KCHS junior stated, “It was very tiring, but in the end, the feeling of accomplishment was more than worth it. Taking third was also an accomplishment.”

Bump, Set, SPIKE: by Bo West

photo by Bo West.

Freshman Brecken Vandenhoeck hits a strong return. When asked about Sub-State play, Coach Fulton said, “I was really proud of the girls, they played hard all day”.

